Last Laughter Who Laughed At Law Is Landed

Last of the Laughter lads, who have laughed at law, have landed liquor lawfully during the last few years at various landings on the river, who have conveyed it by auto through from the perennially liquid oases of Caruthersville, is in the tolls of the federal authorities of Mississippi. Henry Laughter, caught at Priar Point, Miss., Saturday with a boatload consisting of 100 cases of liquor and a quantity of beer, is facing charges of violating the Reed amendment, and federal prison at Atlanta may be yawning for him.

Led by Lucien and E. A. Laughter, the family crest might well be a half-pint rampant on a field of quarts. The well-known Lucien is in the tolls on a charge of violating the Reed amendment by transporting liquor into Port Worth, Tex. His address promises to be Fort Leavenworth, Kan., care U. S. prison, for some time.

E. A. Laughter, skipper of the good ship Grey, and also of various ball bonds, is busy painting buildings red instead of helping to paint noses the same hue at the Shelby county workhouse. After he has served his 11 months and 29 days there Uncle Sam is going to invite him to be his guest at Atlanta for a while for penetrating such a poor brand of whiskey as Old Sage on an entirely innocent and unsuspecting public. Truly a noble family fallen. Well might Bill Shakespeare's famous pronouncement be paraphrased, "Law laughs loudly because it laughs last" at the Laughters.

WILSON'S TAKE ON THE FIGHT IN SENATE

Battle of Parties Will Be on in Full When President Wilson Gets Back, Says Correspondent.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.
(The News Scimitar Special Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Out of the snarl of a week's debate, the Democrats and Republicans emerge about even. The senate demanded the text of the peace treaty "if not incompatible with the public interest." President Wilson's answer will be that he will give the senate a copy of the treaty when there is one.

All copies, documents, drafts, proposals and other material exchanged between the Germans and allied commissioners will be turned over in due time but to transmit anything now would be to interfere with the control of the negotiations hitherto exercised by the executive branch of the government under the constitution.

For, until the Germans sign the pact, it is not a treaty. And Mr. Wilson is not obliged to submit unfinished treaties unless he had reached a definite look or wished action from the senate. Republican senators admit they have no constitutional right to demand this treaty till it is finished, but they also admit they passed the resolution to register their impatience, as not being allowed to see it at the same time the German storekeepers and book publishers have been distributing it. Score in favor of the Republicans.

Turning the Tables.

The Democrats have lost no time in turning the tables on Senators Lodge and Borah who spread the sensational story that copies of the peace treaty were in the hands of unofficial persons in New York. Insinuations that the financial interests have a copy of the proposed treaty were conveyed by the Democrats. Senators Lodge and Borah refused to tell where they saw the alleged copies of the treaty. The Democrats quickly asked for investigation. But that is not the most interesting phase of the incident.

Senator Lodge endeavored to secure the passage of a substituted resolution proposed by Senator Kellogg, of Minnesota, which would authorize either Lodge or Borah to testify before the committee on the peace treaty. But the Democrats quickly asked for investigation. But that is not the most interesting phase of the incident.

Mr. Lodge made the charge; he must sustain it. Who has the treaty, and are sure Mr. Wilson didn't authorize anybody to have it, and that the facts show that he had no knowledge or power to make good the charge. The senators Lodge and Borah call upon them to tell where they saw the alleged copies of the treaty. The Democrats counter that the president gave copies of the treaty to persons in New York, or elsewhere, who had no business setting it.

Irish-American Question.

Next, one comes to the action of the senate in asking the peace treaty conference to grant a passport to the Irish-American delegates. Irrespective of whether the passport is granted within the jurisdiction of the senate, the question of power, there was considerable amusement today over the fact that Senator Borah, of California, had denounced American entanglement in European affairs on one day and then called upon the peace conference to discuss the question of what Great Britain, a European power of considerable prominence, could do to help the Irish element in the United States. The score is about even on that Irish resolution. Politics is indeed, playing a vital part in the senate debates.

Los Angeles Election.

It is a far cry from senate debate to a municipal election in Los Angeles, but Senator Phelan, of California, has somewhat of a reputation as a politician. He is expected to be elected mayor of Los Angeles on the other day by having printed what is evidently regarded as a sequel to President Wilson's famous appeal for a Democratic congress last fall, the appeal which was regarded as an intrusion on the rights of the voters to vote as they pleased. They have been having a majority campaign in Los Angeles, and Mayor Woodman, Republican, was running to succeed him. Both senators Lodge and Smoot, took part in the election. Here are the telegrams put into the record by Senator Phelan.

"Dr. J. J. Scott, Los Angeles: 'Senator Lodge joins me in the hope that every Republican will support the Republican candidate for mayor in the coming city election. Don't let this administration point to Los Angeles as a Democratic city year hence when the national campaign is on. The nation is Republican. We hope Los Angeles will be.'"

"The second reads as follows: 'Hon. James D. Phelan, U. S. Senator: 'Mr. P. Phelan, Democrat, elected mayor of Los Angeles. All papers concerning his election by 15,000 majority. Snyder now leading by 10,000. City clerk estimates total vote cast, 15,000.'"

"F. RAY GROVES, 'Secretary Democratic county committee.'"

Senator Phelan called this an "intrusion" but had no complaint to make about the result, any more than did the Republicans last fall when Mr. Wilson broke the self-determination theory himself. Both parties make the same mistakes. Politics is in the background of most of the debates nowadays and there is evidence that while the Republicans have had things pretty much their own way and are proposing a series of investigations and amendments by the government to win the war. The Democrats are bettering things and taking the offensive. Feeling is running high and all that is necessary to make the fight complete is to have the principal object of attack—Woodrow Wilson—come back to Washington to take a hand in the fray. THREE THOUSAND PEASANTS SLAIN BY HUNGARIAN REDS

VIENNA, June 9. (By the Associated Press).—Three thousand peasants, including women and children, have been shot or hanged by the Red army as a consequence of revolts in western Hungary around Odenburg, according to news considered trustworthy which has been received here. The entire village of Kolhof was burned.

The massacre took place after 32 villages surrounding Odenburg had refused to go over to Bolshevism. They desired to join Austria.

Bela Kun, communist leader and minister of foreign affairs, and Joseph Pogany, Bolshevik minister of war, visited the districts, then sent orders to Commissioner Semely, to whom such class of work is usually deputed because of his bloodthirsty character, to conduct requisitions of clothing, food and other necessities from the peasants. "Blue money" to distinguish it from "red" or soviet money.

The peasants, according to the advertisements gathered a small army numbering a few thousand, armed with rifles, shot and shelled; then machine guns were used. Those who were captured were hanged.

The fighting is in progress between Budapest and Vienna north of the Danube between the Czech-Slovak and the Hungarian communist forces. The Hungarians have crossed the river Neutra and are threatening Pressburg (Posony).

The position of the Czechs in Solothurn is also more serious as the Hungarian communists have been stirring the Slovaks against the Czechs. The Hungarians point out that the Czechs refused to give the Slovaks autonomy.

CHICAGOAN BRINGS TREATY TO U. S.

Full Text of Hun Terms Now Being Syndicated Out of New York.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The full text of the treaty of peace with the central powers, which has been the subject of discussion in the United States senate for a week or more, has been brought to this country by Frazier Hunt, a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, and is being syndicated to newspapers in this country in copyrighted sections. The first section appeared today.

Mr. Hunt says the copy of the treaty which he brought here is one of the original drafts and was obtained in Paris. It is printed in French and English, is contained in 416 pages and runs about 75,000 words. Mr. Hunt says it is quite easy to obtain German translations of the treaty in Germany and neutral countries but these have omissions and are without the maps which his original draft contains, and the summary of the treaty, as previously published in this country. Mr. Hunt states, substantially carries the important points of the full treaty and only in a few places are there omissions. These, he says, occur in the section relating to the Saar valley and in reference to the international labor organization.

Another American correspondent abroad also secured and mailed a full copy of the treaty, but the British censor held it up, according to a statement published in the newspaper here which says the treaty will be officially made today, the paper says, to the foreign relations committee of the senate.

CLAIM WARFARE IS GOING ON IN IRELAND

PARIS, June 9.—Guerrilla warfare of a character "which usually precedes a major conflict is now going on in Ireland," it is declared by Frank F. Walsh and Edward F. Dunne, in a supplementary report which they have forwarded to President Wilson regarding conditions in Ireland.

Meas, Walsh and Dunne, delegates of Irish societies in the United States, affirm in this addition to their report submitted to President Wilson last week that classes of Irish volunteers and the army forces in Ireland, in which men on both sides are killed, are of daily occurrence.

BANK BUYS BONDS.

WINONA, Minn., June 9. (Sp.)—The Winona Bank and Trust company has just bought through the board of directors $100,000 of bonds of district No. 2 of this county. The bonds bear 5 1/2 per cent interest, and sold for $300 premium with bonds furnished. This shows that Montgomery county's securities are at the top of the market and greatly in demand by financiers.

TO BUILD STATION.

HELENA, Ark., June 9. (Sp.)—Information has been received here stating that the federal railroad administration has made appropriation for the erection of a new passenger station for the Missouri Pacific at Marianna. Just prior to the outbreak of the war the Missouri Pacific had made final arrangements to begin actual work of the station, but was abandoned.

CONGRESS BEGINS ITS FOURTH WEEK

Senate Busy on Wire Law Repeal and House at Work on Army Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Congress began the fourth week of its new session today with the senate considering the bill of Senator Kellogg, of Minnesota, Republican, providing for the repeal of the law authorizing government control of telegraph, telephone and cable wires, and the house at work on the $200,000,000 army appropriation bill.

Action on the Kellogg bill by the senate was not expected before late in the week, as lively debate on the action of Postmaster-General Burleson in ordering operation of the wire lines restored to private control and the strike of commercial telegraph and telephone operators was looked for.

The foreign relations committee of the senate was called together by Chairman Lodge today to formulate plans for the inquiry to be undertaken by it into the manner in which copies of the peace treaty with Germany have fallen into private hands in New York. Appointment of a subcommittee to the actual work of calling and questioning witnesses was the principal subject to come up at the meeting.

Meantime the senate awaited a reply to its request for the complete text of the treaty. This request, embodied in a resolution adopted Friday, immediately was referred to President Wilson by state department officials, and the general expectation was that a response would reach the senate either today or tomorrow.

Most senators were predicting today that the request would not be granted, and the same impression was apparent in state department circles.

FOR GREATER HELENA.

HELENA, Ark., June 9. (Sp.)—A movement is on foot to extend the boundary lines of the City of Helena and take in all the improved property and that of the outlying districts that is bound to build up during the next few months. In view of the fact that the census will be taken in 1920, it is imperative that the extension be consummated as soon as possible, that Helena may go down the annals of time credited with her population.

WANTS PEN PUSHERS.

HELENA, Ark., June 9. (Sp.)—The Business Men's league, it is announced, will extend an invitation to the Arkansas State Press association to bring the convention to Helena in May, 1920.

HUNS DRAFT BILL FOR COURT TO TRY GERMAN WAR CHIEFS

BERLIN, June 9. (By the Associated Press).—The constitution convention has completed its consideration of a bill creating a state court which will try those accused of starting, lengthening and losing the war. It will be presented to the national assembly soon.

The measure provides for a committee of 15 members of the national assembly to investigate the political and military leadership of the country prior to and during the war and requires the government to produce any documents needed at the projected trial. The court would be composed of 15 members, including the presidents of the imperial, military, Prussian, Bavarian and Hanseatic supreme courts, five members of the national assembly and five senators. The accused would be permitted to have counsel and would be given the privilege of testifying. Deliberations of the court would be secret and there would be no appeal from its verdict.

"The people demand an explanation as to what is guilty for the war, who it was not ended earlier and whether the baleful result could not have been prevented, which will accompany the trial when it is presented to the assembly. It is the task of a state court, although it can render no final verdict because it is unable to see the archives of other countries participating in the war. Nevertheless, Germany's desire for the creation of an international investigation committee, which was denied by its opponents, so that the court should be created to investigate whether or not Germany has been guilty of conduct against the fatherland."

The statement declares the court should be above party politics and responsible only to its conscience.
